Private children's or family classes price list 2024-25

Mountain Thyme aims to equip children with the skills to feed themselves healthily and with ease. We are confident they will also improve the variety of their eating choices after attending a course of classes with us.

- We provide 2 members of staff to supervise the children if no parents are present
- All children are expected to try a little of what has been made during the class
- We must be notified of any allergies or dietary requirements 24hrs in advance
- All equipment used is age/skill appropriate and children are taught cooking skills in a way that is safe for them to manage
- Savoury dishes are mainly used as they are more beneficial for health

NB: Children's prices apply for kids up to the age of 13 years.
All prices are for up to 10 children or 8 if a mix of parents & children.
We can accommodate up to 12 children, but there is a supplement of 40chf per child (up to 2-hour classes), 50chf per child (up to 3-hour classes).
